CAMP DIRECTORS

Allison Atwood

Allison believes that volleyball is one of the best sports you can play! She has coached volleyball for the last 15 years and has played volleyball since she was a young girl. Coach Atwood was an Outside Hitter for Truman State University-Go Bulldogs! Coaching has allowed her to share her passion for the sport and help athletes develop a love for the game. She is married and has three future volleyball stars at home!

Larry Barbour

Larry is the physical education teacher at Carlisle Elementary in the Plano ISD. Coach Barbour has over 27 years of teaching physical education and 15 years of coaching experience in middle and high school, most recently at Plano West Senior High School from 1999 – 2006. Larry holds B.S. and M.S. degrees in health and physical education from Baylor University. He is a member and deacon at Prestonwood Baptist Church and has been involved in directing basketball camps and leagues at PCBC for the past 24 years. Coach Barbour has also been actively involved with the PCBC Upward Basketball program for the past 17 years. Coach is a huge Disney and Baylor fan, unfortunately, he also supports the LA Dodgers....

Anna Berry

Anna is married and a mom to three kids. Anna grew up on the mission field and has a passion for serving others. She also enjoys teaching her kids how to cook by making it age appropriate and fun. Anna has been the PCBC Cooking Camp Director for the past six years. Three years ago, Anna and her family moved to the country of Georgia. She is returning for the summer to lead three weeks of PCBC Cooking Camps. Fun fact- Georgians do not call it Georgia but Sakartvelo. She looks forward to being back and seeing all her campers this summer!

Carese Bott

Carese has been a teacher for over 20 years and has taught all ages, from preschool to college. She holds a BA and MA in Speech and a MEd in English Education. Carese is a Literacy Essentials Reading Teacher at Lake Highlands High School where she is also the ninth-grade cheer sponsor and the Wrangler sponsor. She enjoys reading, crafting and sporting events in her spare time. Carese is a member of PCBC and has been the Director of Kids Kamp, Arts and Crafts Camps and the American Girl Camps for the past 12 years. She is also the very proud mother of two UT Longhorns.

Daniel Brooke

Daniel is the Sports Outreach Director at Park Cities Baptist Church He played football throughout High School and had the opportunity to play in college at Abilene Christian University. After graduating, he coached middle and high school football in the Dallas and Houston area. Coach Brooke worked on staff with Fellowship of Christian Athletes and before joining the staff at PCBC, was a Middle and High School Minister at HP Pres. He and his wife, Kara have been married for over two years and live in Carrollton with their dog, Jet. Daniel has a passion for Jesus and finding ways to minister through sports, camps and recreation. He is excited for your child to join us this Summer for Camps at PCBC!

Michael Calahan

Michael is a Certified LEGO educator, Certified Rubik's Cube instructor and trainer who aligns product knowledge while enhancing user experience. Founder of Rocket Science for Kids, LLC in 2006, a STEM based resource for students, parents and educators that utilizes LEGO elements as the vehicle for exploration and curriculum implementation. Rocket Science has reached over 20,000 students over a global platform and face to face classes. Michael is married with two daughters. This is Michael's fifth year as our LEGO Summer and Holiday Camp Director.

Brittany Cavender

Brittany, owner of Cross Cheer, has been in the cheerleading industry for over 25 years with her most notable experiences being an SMU Mustangs cheerleader, NCA Instructor, TCA coach and Cheer Athletics nationally ranked athlete. Brittany has owned and operated Cross Cheer for 20 years and enjoys the opportunity to reach little hearts for Christ through cheerleading. This is Brittany's 13th year involved with the PCBC Summer Camp program. In addition to Cross Cheer, Brittany enjoys being a wife (husband Kyle), mom to three precious kids and attending Grace Community Church in Lindale.

Lisa Curtiss

Lisa has owned a mobile pre-school gymnastics business for over 20 years, teaching at many Dallas area churches and schools. Lisa, her husband, and son are members of PCBC and she has volunteered in the nursery, VBS and 4-year-old Sunday School. Lisa also teaches preschool music. This will be her 13th year as our Gymnastics Camp Director. Her son, who is studying at UNT has been her asst. coach for the last couple of years and will be coaching with her this summer as well.

CAMP DIRECTORS

Anne Gunthner

Anne has been teaching drawing and painting for over 20 years. She formerly worked as an art director in advertising in New York City and now teaches Fine Art at her studio and at workshops and classes offered throughout the Dallas area. Anne teaches both children and adult art classes and offers courses in drawing, pastel, watercolor, oil and acrylic painting. She also does private commissioned artwork for a variety of clientele through the United States. This is Anne's sixth year as the PCBC Art Camp Director for Holiday and Summer Camps as well as Fall and Spring Art Classes.

Tammy Owens

Tammy has had the blessing of teaching little girls to dance with praise through Dancing Angels since 1998, leading classes and camps at PCBC for the past 24 years. She is also the creator of Ballerina Blessings, a collectible ballerina devotional series and story-inspired brand that invites little dancers to grow in God's love through play, worship, and wonder. Tammy lives in Dallas and is a member of Watermark Community Church. She is a proud dog mom to Tanner and Tucker and loves a good game of Mahjong - especially when she gets to share that love through camps, one tile at a time. For more information on classes and camps, please visit dancingangels.com.

Sal Rivas

Sal is in his sixth year of teaching elementary school. Sal played soccer all his life and loves teaching and coaching the next generation. Coach Sal worked at PCBC in the Sports & Recreation Ministry for over seven years. He has directed the PCBC Men's Basketball League, Upward Basketball and too many to mention PCBC Sports and Recreation Summer Camps. He loves sports, especially the Dallas Cowboys, playing video games and spending time with his dog, Hazel.

McKay Roan

McKay is "super pumped to work camps this summer!" McKay graduated from Lake Highlands High School where he was very involved in band and baseball. He is now a freshman at Texas A&M University. For the past two years he has been part of the PCBC Sports and Rec Ministry in the Holiday and Summer Camp programs. McKay's church home is right here at PCBC where he was very involved with the Student Ministry. McKay says "I believe that it is important to have fun while also learning about our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Camp is going to be an opportunity for your kids to make friends, enjoy games and learn about God's faithfulness through Bible stories! I cannot wait to see you all at camp this summer!"

Brian Simpson

Brain, owner of Triumph Sports, has worked in sports camps for 30 years (10 with Skyhawks and 20 owning Triumph Sports) Brian has worked the last 21 years at PCBC directing Flag Football Camps along with many other sports camps. He has been a public-school teacher & coach for 14 years. While in college at Point Loma in San Diego, he interned for both the Padres (1996) and Chargers (1996-1998), majored in Business Marketing and played one year of collegiate soccer & baseball. Brian resides in Trophy Club with his wife and four kids.

Betty Sue Welch

Betty Sue has taught and coached tennis for over 50 years. She was inducted into the Texas Tennis Hall of Fame in 1999 and into the Texas Tennis Coaches Hall of Fame in 2009.
